

I am opposed to relaxing the standards re concentration of ownership. I have directly seen the negative results of the current concentration of ownership. In particular, the breadth, depth and quality of news (local, national and international) dissemination has suffered as concentration has increased. The situation would only be exacerbated if concentration standards were further relaxed.